Dot Foods Spruces up Liverpool for Earth Day

Food redistributor and its Monarch Drive neighbors clean up their corner of New York

LIVERPOOL, N.Y. – Dot Foods Inc. associates, friends and neighboring businesses participated in an annual Earth Day cleanup on Friday, April 24.

Dot associates devoted time on Friday to clean up Monarch Drive, the road that leads to Dot's Liverpool facility, which employs more than 240 people. “We take pride in our community and believe that this event heightens awareness of how we need to protect our planet and its valuable resources” said Tammy Lattin, administrative assistant. After the cleanup was completed, Dot hosted a cookout to celebrate everyone’s hard work.

The Liverpool distribution center initiated the Earth Day cleanup program several years ago, and the number of participants has multiplied five times since it began, expanding to community volunteers and neighbors on Monarch Drive. More than 50 people participated this year. The group also received an Earth Day Award from the Liverpool Chamber of Commerce.

“We hope to continue to grow and recruit more members of the community to participate,” said Lattin. “Everyone benefits in protecting our planet.”
